

The Masculine Mandate

By
Richard D. Phillips

Part One: Understanding our Mandate

I. Man in the Garden.

A. Manhood: Who we are? Spiritual Creatures.

1. [Genesis 2:7]- And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.
2. Only one with hands on creation by God.
3. Received the breath of eternal life.
4. [Genesis 1:27]- So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.
5. Created in His image in mortal bodies and immortal spirits.

B. Manhood: Where Man is? Covenant vs. Wild at Heart.

1. [Genesis 2:8]- And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.
2. The Garden-the place where God relates covenantally to His creature Man.
3. The Garden-the place where God brings man into covenantal relationships and obligations.
4. The fallacy of interpretation of man being created and then placed within the Garden when woman was created within the Garden-man finding his identity in the wilderness where he was created.
5. The truth in interpretation was that man was placed in the Garden to gain and act out his God-given identity there.

C. Manhood: What we are? Lords and Servants.

1. [Genesis 1:28]- And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.
2. [Genesis 2:18, 20]- And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.
3. “Adam was not to devote himself, therefore, to endless quests for his masculine identity, but he was to be lord and keeper of God’s created realm, ...”

D. Manhood: How man may fulfill his calling? Work and Keep.

1. [Genesis 2:15]- And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the Garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.
2. Work and labor to make things grow.
3. Keep and protect and sustain progress achieved.

E. The Adventure Begins.

1. Dangers of modern and post modern masculinity-men behaving like little boys forever, serving themselves in the name of self discovery.
2. For it is in obedience to Scripture that the adventure of a man’s life truly begins.
 - a. To bear God’s image in the world.
 - b. To be true leaders and servants in the ultimate cause of displaying God’s glory and bearing the fruit of God’s love in real relationships.

F. Questions for Reflection and Discussion.

1. How is it different to find your masculine identity in the Bible rather than in a life of self-serving quests? Why is God's Word a safer guide?
2. Genesis 2 says that a man's identity includes servant-lordship on God's behalf. What responsibilities has God given you and what authority has he placed into your hands? How should you act so that God is pleased and His name praised? Are there any future responsibilities for which you should be preparing now? How might you do that?
3. Why does God want our masculine identity to be forged in the Garden rather than out in the wilderness? Why is it important that men find their calling in God given relationships?

II. The Masculine Mandate.

C. What greatness looks like?

1. God is still calling on men to cause good things to grow and to keep precious things safe.
2. "We will work and keep" will be our motto.

D. Questions for Reflection and Discussion.

1. Concern over man being taught to be "strong and silent". What is wrong with a man being emotionally distant?
2. How have you benefited from another man's heart-cultivating ministry to you? How have you felt with the lack of it? What are the relationships in which the Lord would challenge you to be more involved to nurture and cultivate growth?
3. Genesis 2:15 shows that men are to be guardian-protectors. What are the threats to people or things under your care? How should you be thinking about your calling to keep them safe?
4. The author states that the masculine mandate is "simple, but not easy". Is this a simple set of ideas? If so, does that make them unimportant? Why is it not easy to fulfill this mandate, if the ideas are simple? What changes are needed in your life that you might better embrace the calling God gave to men in the Garden?

For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind: But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.  - c. [John 15:13]- Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
- F. Questions for Reflection and Discussion.
1. Do friendships with other men play an important role in your life? If so, how? If not, why do you think this is?
 2. Consider Jonathan's sacrificial ministry in going to David. Why was this so important? What are some barriers that keep Christian men from being present in the lives of friends? Can you think of some steps that will enable you to have a greater presence in the lives of male friends and to allow them to be more present in your life?
 3. Have you ever given help to a Christian friend who was struggling with his faith? Have you ever received such help? What was effective in ministering to such a person? What does the Bible mean in saying that Jonathan "strengthened David's hand in God"? Why is this an essential ministry to friends in need?
 4. Jonathan was able to minister so effectively to David because he had been thinking about his friend's situation and had become sensitive to his needs. What are some ways you can make yourself more sensitive to the needs of your male friends so as to intercede for them in the presence of God?

XII. The Masculine Mandate in the Church.

A. Nehemiah's example in building the walls and gates of Jerusalem.

1. Nehemiah's men both worked to rebuild Jerusalem and kept protection over what was built.
 - a. [Nehemiah 4:16]- And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.
2. Christian men are to labor in the church with the trowel in one hand and with the sword of truth in the other.

B. Male-only Leadership.

1. Authoritative positions in the church to be held by men.
2. Women should play a leading role in the church, for a church with a strong masculine presence should have a feminine beauty about it as well.
3. The offices of spiritual authority are the elders and deacons.
 - a. [Acts 6:3-4]- Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.
 - b. [1 Timothy 3:2-4, 8-10]- A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.
 - c. [1 Corinthians 11:3,8-9]- But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
 - d. [1 Timothy 2:12-14]- But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.
4. Equipped for service.
 - a. Christian men should be serious about their faith so as to equip themselves to serve in church leadership and, if they sense a call to the ministry, examine Scripture concerning leadership roles.
 - 1.) [1 Timothy 3:2-7]- A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?) Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil. Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.
 - b. Churches today need men who address life with this kind of purpose, striving to prepare themselves and grow spiritually so they are qualified to serve as leaders.
5. All are soldiers, athletes, and farmers.

 - a. [Romans 12:6-8]- Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching; Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

- 3. We must in the day of our labor, fix our eyes on the day of glory and of Christ's return.

F. Questions for Reflection and Discussion.

- 1. How clear is the Bible's teaching on male-only leadership in positions of teaching and authority? Does adherence to this requirement make a real difference in the life of a church? What are ways in which this requirement can be abused? What are ways in which ignoring it is harmful?
- 2. Even if you are not now called to serve as an elder or deacon, how do the biblical requirements for these offices apply to your life as a Christian man? How can these guidelines serve to focus your spiritual growth?
- 3. Do you believe that God has given you specific spiritual gifts that are to be used in the church? If so, what are they and how are you using them? If you are unsure about your gifts, how do you think you might learn what they are?
- 4. In what ways do non-ordained Christian men play an important role alongside the elders and deacons? Do you think that your godliness matters in your church? How can you show leadership as a Christian man, whether you are ordained or not?
- 5. Do you consider yourself to be sound in your faith? If not, how can you safeguard your family and church against error? What steps should you take to ensure that you know sound doctrine? If you consider yourself sound in faith, what can you do to continue growing in your knowledge and to use your knowledge to benefit the church?

E. Questions for Reflection and Discussion.

1. Do you often think about the return of our Lord Jesus Christ? If not, what else in the future forms your thoughts about the present? Why is the second coming of Christ the great event that defines everything now?
2. Do you think of yourself as a personal disciple of Jesus? If not, why don't you tend to think this way? Are you helped by the discussion in this chapter of being Christ's disciple? How does the Holy Spirit minister to Christians now on Christ's behalf?
3. What principle is mentioned in this chapter as key to Christian faithfulness? Have you ever struggled with envy toward other Christians? Why is this wrong and counterproductive? What is the remedy for envy and the key to godly ambition as a Christian man?
4. The author states that the chief reward for serving Christ is the sheer joy of serving Christ. Do you agree? Have you experienced this joy? What happens when our service to Jesus is motivated by our pursuit of other rewards? Why should serving Jesus Christ be such an overwhelming joy to us, even in hardship?
5. How do we become humble? How does humility make a difference in our service to the Lord? The author mentions Moses, David, and John the Baptist as examples of humility. Can you think of things in their lives that show humility? Can you think of ways in which Jesus is "lowly and meek," as He says He is? Is it manly to seek such a description?
6. Jesus promises to greet all His faithful servants with the words "Well done." What does this prospect mean to you? Pray about how you might live now so as to hear those words when Jesus returns?
